

Resources

National Center for Missing & Exploited Children (NCMEC)

- Serves as a clearinghouse of information about missing and exploited children
- Provides technical assistance to individuals and law-enforcement agencies in the prevention, investigation, prosecution, and treatment of cases involving missing and exploited children
- Distributes photographs and descriptions of missing children worldwide
- 1.800.843.5678
- www.missingkids.com

CyberTipline

- Collection point for tips and leads in reference to pornography involving children and exploitation of children on the Internet
- 24-hour hotline at 1.800.843.5678
- www.cybertipline.com

NetSmartz Workshop

- Online tips, activities, and current Internet safety news
- Educational resources - "activity cards" to help incorporate online activities into teachings
- Internet safety pledges to post near the computer to remind children of rules
- A safe site for children that does not link to any outside sources
- 1.800.843.5678
- www.NetSmartz.org and www.NetSmartzKids.org
- E-mail NetSmartz\_pe@ncmec.org

Internet Crimes Against Children Task Forces (ICAC)

- Assists state and local law-enforcement agencies in responding to cyber enticement and cases involving pornographic images of children
- Through June 2004, 45 task forces have been established throughout the nation
- www.icctraining.org

Boys & Girls Clubs of America (BGCA)

- More than 4 million youth served at 3,400 locations
- Professional Youth Development Staff
- A leader in child safety
- www.bgca.org

Internet Safety Web Sites

www.NetSmartz.org
www.SafeKids.com
www.SafetyEd.org
www.GetNetWise.org