A fabulous morning of creative art is planned for Tuesday, November 28th, starting at 9:45. I am looking for a few volunteers to help manage this project. We will be making a collage based on Eric Carle's book, A House for Hermit Crab. Volunteers must have approved paperwork on file in the office. Please be prepared to help students as needed, pass out materials and clean up afterward.

Plan to be here until 11:30. If you can help, please send me an e-mail or write a note in your child's planner.

Math

Students have started working with money. To help support your child's learning at home, please review coin names and values. Also, Please have your child practice adding coin amounts.

This week in math students also focused on:

- Solving word problems involving dollar bills, dimes, and pennies, using $ and ¢ (NBT, MD)

- Skip counting by 5s and finding the value of collections of dimes, nickels and pennies (NBT, MD)
- Building fluency for addition within 100 (NBT)
- Independent math choices such as Math Packets and Math Tiles.

Weekly Challenge

(This is always an optional activity.)

Make a three-dimensional turkey. Be creative! Remember, 3-D means not flat! This challenge is worth 5 Blue Slips and is due next Wednesday.
